HR Trustees appoints Graham Withers to head up operations

Leading independent trustee firm, HR Trustees, has announced the promotion of Graham Withers to head their operations. Graham's promotion within this dynamic and growing business comes at a time of increasing demand for professional independent trustee services.

Graham has worked for HR Trustees for 4 years and in the independent trustee business for over 25 years. This appointment will allow him to grow the business and lead HR Trustees into the next decade. His vision for the group is for it to adapt to the evolving role of independent trustee and changing needs of pension schemes whilst continuing to provide a first class service and support to existing and new clients.

Graham Withers, Head of HR Trustees commented:

HR Trustees is a thriving business with experienced and talented professional people. We have a good infrastructure and a supportive owner. We are working in a challenging and interesting area and I see my role as ensuring we give our people the support and leadership they need to keep doing their jobs well and to ensure we provide a first class service to our clients. I am looking forward to it.

Graham takes over from Steven Ross who recently resigned from the company after more than 20 years' service.
