HR Trustees appoints Giles Payne

Leading independent trustee firm, HR Trustees, expands its business with the appointment of Giles Payne as director. Giles' appointment to this dynamic and growing business comes at a time of increasing demand for professional independent trustee services.

In this new role, Giles will be acting as an Independent Trustee and sitting on Investment Sub-Committees to help trustees formulate their investment strategy.

Giles joins HR Trustees from Legal & General Investment Management where he was an Account Manager responsible for relationships with the trustees and sponsoring employers of pension schemes. His role involved working with trustees to design, implement and manage a wide range of investment strategies including DC investments, Liability Driven Investment strategies and scheme specific benchmarks.

Graham Withers Managing Director HR Trustees commented:

"Giles's appointment continues our process of extending our team's capabilities through the appointment of quality people with a variety of skills and backgrounds. I am sure that Giles's skills will prove of great value to trustee boards".
